IS STORY OF HIS SLAYER

Frederick Sextro, Living in Same

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.-Frederick Sextro, wealthy manager of a coal company here, admitted today, police said, he shot and killed the Rev. Frederick Ruff, pastor of the Memorial Methodist Church, in the exclusive Northshore district and owner of several large apartment buildings. Sextre, when taken to the Rogers Park Police Station, declared he mistook the paster for a burglar when he met him in the hallway.

Sextro occupied in apartment above the one in which the pastor and his family lived. According to information given police, Sextro was among the many tenants of build ings owned by the paster, who had quarreled with Rev. F. Ruff recently because of large increases in rent.

GREETINGS

OUT of the hundreds of contributions to our Prize Contest, the committee of school teachers has selected yours as being the best: Miss Nelson, the first prize, $25.00; Miss Lewit, second prize, $15.00, and Miss Beazley, third prize, $10.00.

WE wish to thank all of the children for their very kind interest, and wish to tell you that the committee only decided after due consideration of each contribution, finally deciding on those announced and published below:

No. 261—1st Prize, $25.00 By Miss Elizabeth Nelson Collegiate School Gresham Court

No. 208—2nd Prize, $15.00 By Miss Adele Lewit John Marshall High School 2510 West Grace

No. 251—3rd Prize, $10.00 By Miss Mary Beazley John Marshall High School 211 South Cherry

FIRST PRIZE

MISS ELIZABETH NELSON. Collegiate School, Gresham Court, City.

"The average retail buyer has no conception of the time, energy and money wasted when an article is charged and sent. With so much effort being made to reduce the cost of living, a very valuable aid may be found in the plan of 'Cash-and-Carry.'

"From the standpoint of Cash: It is much easier for the buyer to pay directly since it saves his sending a check and the bank's trouble of handling it. For the store it prevents the expense of bookkeeping, accounting and collecting delinquent accounts. If everything were bought on a cash basis, much needless expenditure would be avoided.

"As for carrying purchases, there is the double advantage of having them immediately, while delivery is often delayed, and eliminating the expense of porters, delivery wagons, and so forth, which amounts to an enormous sum that must necessarily be made up by an increased charge on the article bought,

"It is to be hoped that Richmond's shoppers will co-operate to abolish the system of charge and send, and thus reduce the

SECOND PRIZE

MISS ADELE LEWIT, John Marshall High School, 2510 West Grace Street, City.

> "At a time when people are trying to reduce the high cost of living, it is essential that they realize the value and advisability of buying for cash. Many leading stores, all over the country, have inaugurated this system, which is rapidly growing in popularity. When you pay cash and take your package with you, you buy your shoes from 15 to 20% cheaper than you would otherwise, in addition to the wholesale reductions, because of cash purchase from the factory. When you pay cash, you pay for the cost of the shoes plus the minimum of expenses. It is a matter of small inconvenience to carry a shoe box. When you buy under the system of 'Credit and Charge and Send' you pay for porters, trucks, bookkeeping, collectors, stamps, approval sales, charge sheets, credit sheets, exchanges, delinquent accounts, bad debts, bills and countless other encumbering expenses. For the person who wants to save money, the CASH plan is the ideal one."

THIRD PRIZE

MISS MARY BEAZLEY. John Marshall High School, 211 South Cherry Street, City.

> "The Advantages in buying for cash are many and numerous and can be better understood when practiced.

> "Did you know that when you pay cash you assist the business man to cut down expenses in regard to bills and accounts, thereby eliminating bad accounts?

"You also cut down the cost of delivery, collecting, the number of compaints that may arise, the worry over how you are to meet bills and other expenses which are essential in carrying on charge accounts. When you buy for cash you enable the business man to sell his goods from 20 to 25% cheaper and do a larger business on smaller capital, because he can meet his obligations promptly and secure the best terms in regard to discount, etc. Then, if the consumer practices buying for cash, he or she has to practice economy, thereby learning the habit of saving. This habit exterminates extravagance and fosters thrift and promotes a keen insight into our own real needs. It never encourages us to spend the last cent for things we would be happier without, and, if generally practiced by the many, few would be the paupers, and fewer still the millionaires."

"When you receive a bill on the first of the month you pay the man to send it"
